Sept
2014

Dear Friends,

The Church's Ministry among Jewish people (CMJ) will be holding the CMJ Day Wales at St Teilo's on Saturday September 27 from 10.00am-4.30pm, when Dr Don Stanley, Director of CMJ Israel, and other visiting speakers will be with us.

The purpose of the day is to tell us about the work of CMJ and to increase our understanding of the Jewish roots of our Christian faith, which is so vitally important to a proper understanding of who and what we are as Christians. Flyers are available giving details of the programme for the day, which can also be found on the church's website (www.llandeilofawr.org.uk) and on Facebook. We are the host church so please put the date in your diary and make every effort to come and welcome others from around Wales and beyond.

Our Tuesday evening meetings will start again at 7.00pm on September 16 when we will begin a 10 part video course called TOWARDS BELIEF. This was made as a television series interviewing leading Christian thinkers around the world on what it calls the "belief blockers" of our time. The episodes will look at Suffering, The Bible, The Supernatural, Religious Violence, Exclusive Faith, Church Abuse, Science & God, Homosexuality, The Church, and Towards Belief. Their aim is to challenge the prevailing secular world-view in western nations with an intelligent Christian world-view, which enables us to make better sense of the world and of our lives within it.

This is a course which will equip those of us who are Christians to be able to explain our faith more effectively, and is also something to which we can invite those we know from outside church who may be interested to hear what a well thought-out Christian faith has to say on some of today's controversial subjects involving faith.

Yours sincerely,

Michael
